

Demonstration AutoCAD 2011

During April NCAUG meeting

Tim Corey has offered to treat the group to a full demonstration of the new features of AutoCAD 2011 at the April group meeting. Unfortunately, the non-disclosure statement is still in effect and no information is available about the upcoming changes.

HOT AutoCAD Tip!

Cadalyst Tip #3357

Leonid Nemirovsky notes that if you have several drawing files open, it is possible to use the Match Property command between them.

"Select the source object in one file, hold down Ctrl, and press Tab to switch to another (open) drawing. CHPROP is still in effect; select a target object, and it will work."

Note: The process works just fine, as long as you don't switch drawing tabs. Make sure you are in the correct drawing tab first, then switch to the source file, start the Change Properties command, and use Ctrl +Tab to move to the other file. ♦LB
